New York, NY (September 10th, 2013) - Modern Farmer is pleased to announce that its second print quarterly, Modern Farmer magazine is now available on newsstands throughout the United States and will be available throughout the United Kingdom, September 23rd, 2013. The inaugural issue of Modern Farmer, as well as the website www.modernfarmer.com launched in April 2013 as a multi-platform media brand for people who have the desire to be closer to - and more educated about - the food on their plates.

"We continue to be dedicated to the stories behind the food. We celebrate the farmers, the animals, the weather and the modern eater," said Editor-in-Chief, Ann Marie Gardner. "Our second issue is packed with more great content, epic photography and the kind of agricultural reporting that is as approachable as it is thorough and relevant."

Issue 2 highlights include:

Q&A with former U.S. President, Bill Clinton

Space Farming: The Final Frontier

Conflict Farming: Lebanon

Food Waste

The Rise of Rural TV

Plus, quarterly columns: Ask an Ag Minister, Modern Farmer's Global Guide to Local, How-To's, Field Notes and Do's and Don'ts of the Farmers Market.

Magazine content plus web-exclusives will be published daily on the website www.modernfarmer.com.

Modern Farmer magazine is available via local community-supported agriculture sites, organic home deliveries and select retailers including Barnes & Noble, Hudson News, Whole Foods, and Tractor Supply. In the United Kingdom retailers include WHSmith, Foyles, Material, Selfridges and Pertersham Nurseries. Each issue of Modern Farmer magazine is priced at $7.99 (U.S. & Canada) or $29.97 for a one-year subscription.
